

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE
JUNE 10, 2013

CONTACT: TODD JOSKO
(813) 374-4618

NEW HIRES AT NAIOP TAMPA BAY
Kelsey Bokor promoted to Executive Director and Todd Josko retained for public affairs and strategic communications counsel.

Tampa, Fla. – NAIOP Tampa Bay, the Commercial Real Estate Development Association, has announced the promotion of Kelsey Bokor to the position of Executive Director, and the retention of Todd Josko, principal of Josko Public Affairs + Communication, to provide government relations and strategic communication counsel to the chapter.

As NAIOP Tampa Bay Executive Director, Bokor will be responsible for delivering engaging, relevant and timely member programming that provides value and visibility within the community. Additionally, she will assist the organization in developing new services and benefits for its members, while expanding sponsorship opportunities.

Bokor previously served NAIOP Tampa Bay as Director of Programs. Prior to joining NAIOP Tampa Bay, Kelsey managed the Leadership Tampa and Leadership Tampa Alumni programs for the Greater Tampa Chamber of Commerce where she designed and implemented high-quality education programs for a diverse group of business executives and a 600-member alumni association.

As NAIOP Tampa Bay Public Affairs Director, Josko will work with the Board to create a government affairs platform, monitor and participate in local government activities affecting the chapter's platform and develop a limited branding and communications strategy for the chapter highlighting government affairs efforts.

Todd is the principal of Josko Public Affairs + Communications (<http://www.joskoinc.com>), a full service firm providing public affairs, government relations and issue management counsel for industries, associations and professionals driving economic growth across Florida and the greater Tampa Bay region.

“The additions of Kelsey and Todd to the NAIOP Tampa Bay team will help create even greater value for our membership and better position NAIOP Tampa Bay as the leading commercial real estate industry voice across the greater Tampa Bay region,” said Duane Milford, president of NAIOP Tampa Bay.

About NAIOP Tampa Bay

NAIOP Tampa Bay is the leading trade organization representing developers, owners, investors and related professionals in commercial real estate. NAIOP Tampa Bay fosters business relationships, promotes responsible development and supports sustainable growth of the region through education, leadership and advocacy.

For more information about NAIOP Tampa Bay, please visit <http://www.naioptb.org>

###